CONSULTANT

Location: Cambridge office/Hybrid
Salary: Competitive

Due to ongoing success and internal growth, we are looking for a Consultant to join our Cambridge team.
Cogentia is a specialist consulting company focused on Health Economics and Market Access within the Life Sciences industry, an area that is of increasing importance to pharmaceutical, biotech and medtech companies and to National health systems around the world where their products are used. Cogentia works with a range of clients, across many different therapy areas and technologies.

Responsibilities

As a Consultant, you will

- Take ownership of the projects and manage project teams in the design, development and delivery of medium-sized consulting projects, ensuring clients receive high-quality deliverables in a timely and cost-effective manner
- Lead research and analysis in a range of practice areas, including:
  - Market access strategy
  - Payer research
  - Economic evaluation
  - Health Technology Assessment (HTA)
  - Systematic reviews and evidence synthesis
- Support and mentor less experienced team members.
- Contribute to business development. While this is a primary responsibility of the Directors, our consultants play a key role, especially in:
  - Identifying opportunities for follow-on work and new leads
  - Supporting the development of intellectual property for use on future engagements
  - Supporting the development of proposals
  - Building strong relationships with clients, payers, key opinion leaders, other stakeholders and influencers

About you

Essential

- Proven experience within a market access and health economics consultancy
- A PhD or MSc in health economics or a life sciences subject (e.g. medicine, physiology, biochemistry, pharmacology, pharmacy), or equivalent experience
- Demonstrated understanding of pricing and market access (P&MA) and the issues facing P&MA clients, including payer trends, recent country-specific P&MA developments, therapy area (TA)-specific trends and pricing trends (list versus net)

- Strong project management skills, with a proven ability to work to strict deadlines
- A proactive, resourceful approach: taking on new challenges and identifying opportunities for follow-on work
- Strong analytical skills, with the ability to interpret complex data and communicate findings clearly
- Excellent written and verbal English, and strong interpersonal skills, including effective listening and negotiation
- Commitment to developing yourself and others
- Eligibility to work in the UK

Desirable

- Additional language ability

What we offer

- A competitive salary and benefits package
- 25 days annual leave plus the standard public holidays
- A flexible hybrid working policy that supports a healthy work-life balance
- A great central Cambridge location and a friendly and supportive work environment

How to apply

To apply, please email your CV along with a covering letter to recruitment@cogentia.co.uk, quoting "Consultant" in the subject line.

Cogentia is an equal opportunities employer. We welcome applications from all suitably qualified candidates and will make reasonable adjustments during the recruitment process on request.
